11. Study Guide Policy:

Students at Northwestern Middle School will be provided a study guide to use when studying for their assessments. This study guide will include key vocabulary and essential questions to be answered. This guide will be given at least a week prior to the test and answers will be provided in class and online.

12. Absence Make-Up Procedures (FCBOE Policy JBD):

Upon returning to school following an absence, it is the student’s responsibility to contact the teachers to request make-up work. Make-up work must be completed by the student within the time specified by the teacher. At NMS, students will be given the same amount of time to make up the work as the student was absent unless other arrangements are mutually agreed upon. The student will receive the actual grade on the make-up work if the absence was “excused.”

13. Major/Minor Assessments Not Turned In:

For late work (unrelated to excused absences):

- a. Projects: 2 points reduction per day for late assessments for a maximum of 10 points deducted.

14. Academic Dishonesty:

Fulton County Board of Education has always expected its students to practice academic honesty. Adopted March 1998, the Student Academic Integrity policy states: The Board of Education regards academic honesty as a cornerstone of its educational mission. Cheating will not be tolerated in this school system. Examples of cheating include, but are not limited to; copying or “borrowing” from another sources and giving it as one’s own work; seeking or giving unauthorized assistance on tests or assignments; altering or forging grades, grade books, progress reports, report cards, or academic records and using substantially identical work in more than one course without the instructor’s prior approval. Any plagiarism or other violation of Northwestern’s Academic Honesty Policy will be document and result in a grade of a zero.

PLAGIARISM POLICY

Academic honesty is very important at Northwestern Middle School. It is the responsibility of both the student and parent to be aware of what constitutes plagiarism consequences.

Examples of Plagiarism and Cheating

- ✗ Falsifying laboratory data (both copying and creating it)
- ✗ Copying others words, ideas, thoughts and images
- ✗ Modifying an image when the assignment requires original work
- ✗ Paraphrasing and summarizing without citing the source
- ✗ Providing another student with your work, even if you do not know they are going to use it as their own (includes sharing homework answers)
- ✗ Providing others with quiz/test answers either before, during, or after the quiz/test

How to prevent plagiarism

- ✓ Words/ideas: cite sources for information that is quoted, summarized, and paraphrased.
- ✓ Images: cite source of image.
- ✓ If an assignment calls for original images, this means they must be created from scratch and not taken/traced from books, magazines, Internet, etc.
- ✓ Original work is also not a modification of images from books, magazines, Internet, etc.
- ✓ Do not wait until the last minute to complete your work.
- ✓ If you are unsure if you are plagiarizing, please consult your teacher.
- ✓ Grade entered will be a zero until the new assignment is received.

All plagiarizing will result in the following:

1. Parents will be notified
2. Students will re-do the assignment or an alternative assignment
3. Possible administrative referral
